30-Day Job Search Daily Guide (Bullet Format + Detailed)

A full breakdown of what to do each day + how to do it.

DAY 1 — Resume: Build Your Wins Bank

- List 10 measurable achievements from past roles.
 - Include metrics: % improvements, time saved, volume managed, budgets, stakeholder counts.
 - Identify 3 skill gaps you want to close before January.

DAY 2 — Resume: Rewrite Summary

- Rewrite your summary using keywords from 2–3 target job descriptions.
 - Keep it forward-looking (“I help deliver...”, “I specialize in...”).
 - Mention industry, strengths, tools, and types of projects.

DAY 3 — Resume: Rebuild Bullet Points

- Rewrite 6–8 bullets using: Action + Metric + Outcome.
- Use industry verbs: coordinated, executed, monitored, documented, optimized.

- Replace tasks with results (e.g., “Reduced RFI turnaround by 25%”).

DAY 4 — Resume: Clean Up Older Roles

- Shorten roles older than 5–7 years.
 - Keep only relevant wins.
 - Remove generic duties (“Responsible for...”) and keep impact-focused bullets.

DAY 5 — Resume: Tailor to One Job

- Tailor headline + top bullets to match the job description.
 - Ensure top 5 bullets reflect the role’s scope + tools + responsibilities.
 - Add any missing skills from JD into resume (authentically).

DAY 6 — Resume: ATS & Formatting

- Run resume through an ATS checker.
 - Fix formatting: remove tables/text boxes, standardize bullets.
 - Ensure keywords appear naturally in bullets.

DAY 7 — Resume: Final Quality Pass

- Fix spacing, alignment, tense inconsistencies.

- Ensure resume clearly shows:
 - What you do
 - What tools you know
 - Your impact

DAY 8 — LinkedIn: Headline Rewrite

- Add role + niche + strengths:

Example: “Project Engineer | RFIs, Submittals, Field Coordination | Commercial Construction”
 - Keep it keyword-rich to boost search visibility.

DAY 9 — LinkedIn: About Section

- Write 3 paragraphs:
 1. Your story — Who you are and how you got here
 2. Your skills — Tools, methodologies, industries
 3. Your proof — Wins, metrics, projects
 - Make it skimmable with line breaks.

DAY 10 — LinkedIn: Experience Section

- Align with your updated resume.

- Add 3–5 impact-based bullets per role.
 - Use results style formatting.

DAY 11 — LinkedIn: Skills Update

- Add 25–30 relevant skills.
 - Remove old/extraneous ones.
 - Pin your top 3 that align with target roles.

DAY 12 — LinkedIn: Featured Section

- Upload resume or a “Key Wins” PDF (if comfortable).
 - Add links to portfolio/case studies.
 - Highlight 1–2 strong posts or projects.

DAY 13 — LinkedIn: Recommendations

- Ask 2–3 peers or managers.
 - Share a small draft to make it easy.
 - Tell them what you want highlighted (impact, ownership, collaboration).

DAY 14 — REST DAY

- Light review only.
 - Stretch, walk, breathe.
 - Job search burnout is real — recharge your mental battery.

DAY 15 — Targeting: Build Company List
